FOREWORD

We, the Seniors of 1953, on the pages that follow, have endeavored through our theme "School Days," to preserve some of the memories of association, happy hours, activities, and proud achievements of our students, organizations and faculty.

If, in the distant future, these scenes and faces here recorded renew the happy spirit of our school days, we shall consider our purpose achieved.

PRAYER

Great God! I ask thee for no meaner pelf,
Than that I may not disappoint myself;
That in my action I may soar as high
As I can now discern with this clear eye.

And next in value, which thy kindness lends,
That I may greatly disappoint my friends,
Howe'er they think or hope that it may be
They may not dream how thou'st distinguished me.

That my weak hand may equal my firm faith,
And my life practice more than my tongue
saith;
That my low conduct may not show,
Nor my relenting lines,
That I thy purpose did not know
Or overrated thy designs.

Loretto Has Twelve Lettermen

Loretto, Tenn., Sept. 2—Football is a general topic of discussion among the sportsmen in this Lawrence County town of 709 population (1950 census), but more specifically about the 36 candidates working out for the local high school grid team last year the Loretto High School Mustangs finished with a 5-4 season mark and tied for second place in the Tennessee Valley Conference, but they will be out to better that record in 1952.

The Mustangs will open the season Sept. 5 by traveling to Pulaski to engage in a TVC battle with the Giles County High Bobcats. This meeting is a traditional affair with a long history. After this game the Mustangs play eight other foes in four other TVC games at Hohenwald, Mt. Pleasant, Centerville, and Loretto.

Coach Pool returns the Mustangs to the field. He assisted by Coach Hooie. Coach Pool has five letterwinners to operate his backfield play. Bobby Belew, Alvis, Billy Craft, and Bob Hooie are the three-letter winners as the Mustangs top backfield.

Seven lettermen, headed by returning regulars Tommy Carson, Fred Johnston, Bobby Belew, and Ralph Shannon, will give Loretto an experienced first-team line. Charles Richardson, Grafford Brewer, and Harold Kent are the other line monogram winners.

Carson and Johnston were good pass receiving ends last year and with added experience figure to make Loretto's aerial game stronger. Belew was an aggressive guard last season and Brewer saw his action as a reserve. Shannon, 180-pound junior, and Richardson, 185-pound senior, are the experienced tackles, and Kent is the only experienced center on the squad.

LINEMEN: Bobby Belew—160, Grayford Brewer—170, Harold Brown—150, Tommy Carson—150, Herman Corum—160, Don Forsythe—145, Billy Fulks—170, Houston Golden—158, Richard Hunt—130, Charles Johnston—140, Carson Johnston—146, Fred Johnston—156, Harold Kent—160, Billy Jean Marks—160, Tony Parrott—150, Howard Perry, Jr.—155, Charles Richardson—185, Billy Rippey—146, Kenneth Shannon—130, Ralph Shannon—180, Roger Williams—136.

BACKS: Billy Alvis—175, David Beasley—140, Billy Beecham—146, Allen Belew—170, Coy Belew—120, Don Craft—143, Laris Ezell—130, Bill Ferguson—130, George Ferguson—147, Louie Dee Flatt—145, Ray Fox—150, Bob Hooie—175, James Noblitt—145, Clyde Richter—128, Paul Wilson—150.
