desolate scene to an emergence of activity.

As the year began, students had high expectations. From a new year and a new semester. Busy schedules, late night

Randall Dillon Brown

Dillon my protector, my buddy, my awesome friend! There could never be another to fill all of these positions so well! He was always there if I needed to talk, he didn't dare let me fall! He was kind and gentle, yet he pushed me hard. He wouldn't let you frown, if he had to he'd literally turn that frown upside-down! Even if no one could make me smile, Dillon would make me laugh! Randall Dillon Brown! What a wonderful name! Yet also what a shame! So young and loved! Why did God have to take this wonderful person away? Why couldn't he just let him stay? God has a purpose though for everything he does. Dillon was an awesome person here on earth! So, I just wonder how perfect an angel he makes! I can see him now, all dressed in white, with his cute dimples, and his smile so bright! I wonder which star he is and just how bright he shines! I bet he's the brightest star in the entire sky! Because here on earth he was a bright star in my eyes!

The Lunch Ladies are: Trish Purser, Angela Franklin, Pattie Bryant, Darlene Bradley, Sissy Daniels, Wanda Hardwick, Mary Staggs, Kristy Ferguson, Donna Glass, and Lisa Wright

Caught off guard! Patty gives her best smile.

Alert! Crazy woman (Nondas) in a clown's suit is on the loose. She is considered armed and dangerous.

the classroom. With many hours available outside of school, students are anxious to dive into life and have a little fun during students have many activities in which to get involved.

Break Time 2004

Ten Free Minutes

Break is the one time of the day that students and teachers look forward to most. It's a time to eat breakfast, get snacks, or just stand around and chat with friends.

Although it is a short ten minutes, break gives students and teachers a chance to free themselves from the everyday routine of classroom activities.

Bradley Reed takes time to eat his breakfast during break in the cafeteria.

You Said It!

Jimmy Vanderford

What do you spend break doing?

EATING!

Meredith Green

What would you change about break?

It would be longer!

Kaysha Erwin

What do you like most about break?

It relieves me from CALCULUS!

Spirit Games

The competition for this year's ultimate prize--the spirit trophy--was a close one. As with every homecoming, no class wants to be labeled the homecoming week losers; so all the classes strived to be the champions by showing their enthusiasm (along with a little competitiveness) to win the daily spirit games. For each dress-up day, there was a game themed to match that specific day, and the week ended with the much anticipated scavenger hunt. From hula-hoop contests to paper-airplane throws, each class did their best to come out on top.

You Said It!

Nick Davis

Who do you think should have won the spirit trophy and why?

That's an easy one. The Seniors should have won because the Class of 2004 RULES!

Keshia Gray

Which game did you enjoy participating in the most?

My favorite is always the Friday scavenger hunt.

Amber James

How did you feel walking into school wearing an afro?

I felt beautiful!

Homecoming Week 2003

DressUp Days

Students at Loretto High always have a wonderful time dressing up for homecoming week, but this year was definitely one of the best. The week started out with the classic pajama day where everyone got to relax in their pj's. Tuesday, LHS was sent back in time to many different decades, from the 20's to the 80's. On Wednesday, students and faculty members honored their favorite people in history. The wild west took over the school on Thursday, turning the student body into cowboys and cowgirls. On the day of the big game, everyone showed their Mustang pride by decking out in black, white, and camouflage.

Above: Jessica Dryden (a.k.a Audrey Hepburn) has breakfast at Tiffany's.

Below: Mayberry comes to Loretto when Aunt Bee (Miss Patty) and Barney (Philippe Fontenot) stop by for a visit.

Left: Erin Dixon and Nathan Creekmore say their favorite characters are Ragedy Ann and Andy.

You Said It!

Sarah Englehardt

What is your favorite country song?

Cowboy Take Me Away by the Dixie Chicks.

Tara Comer

Why is Thelma Harper your favorite person in history?

She's really cool and funny.

Claire Kennedy

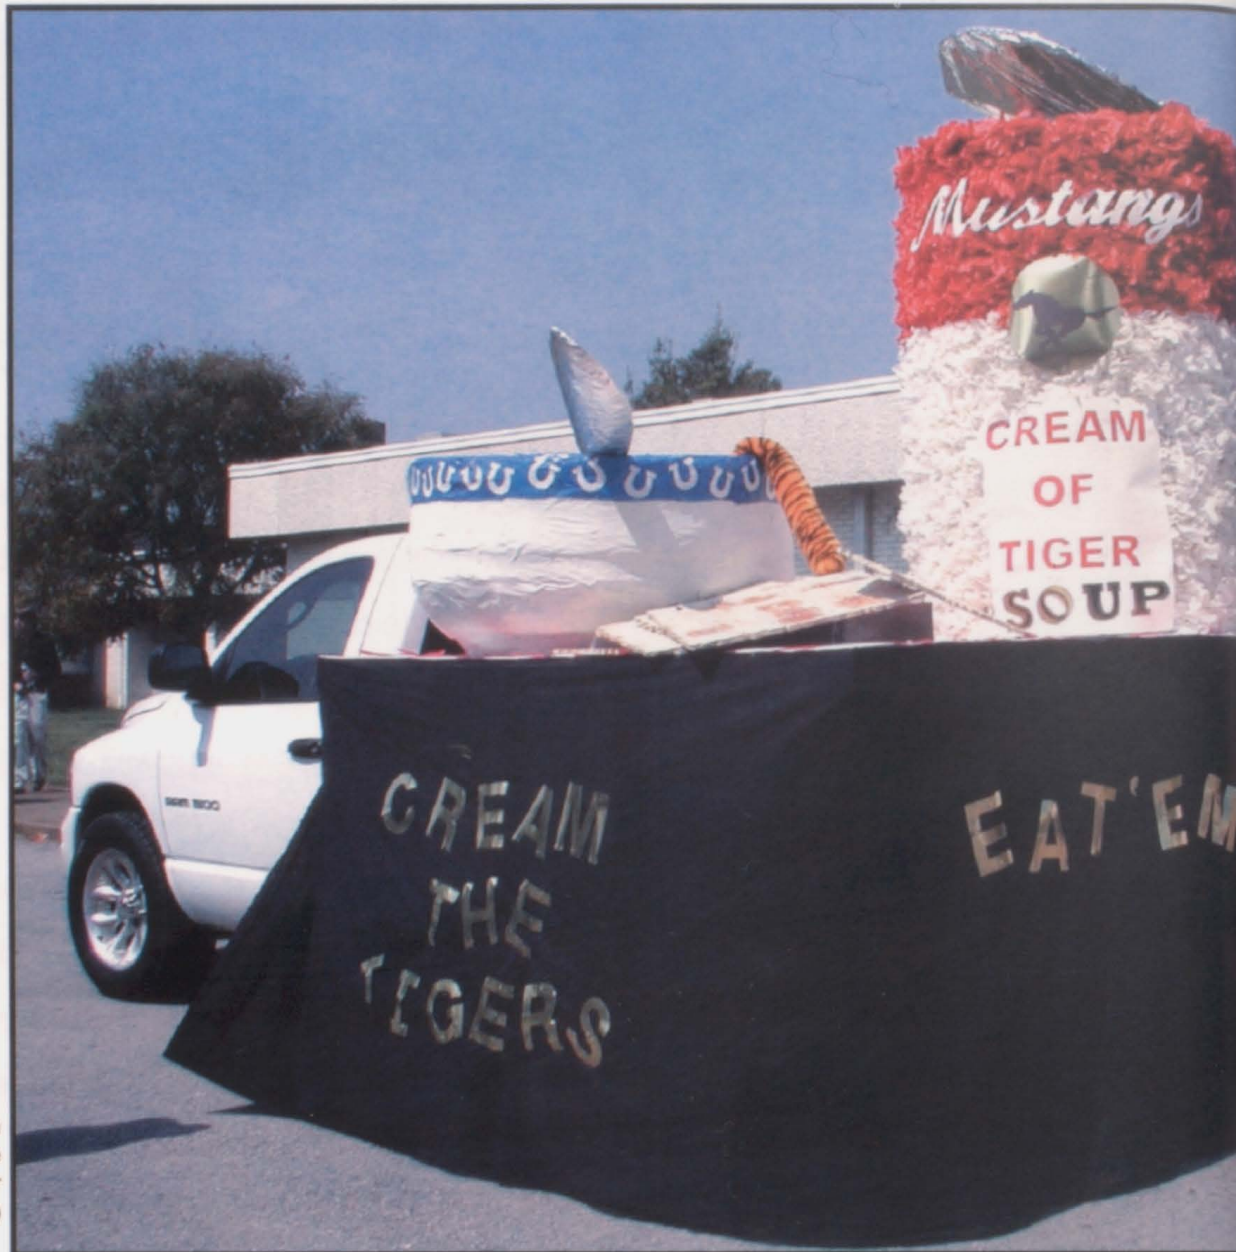

If you could meet any person from history, who would it be?

It sounds silly, but I would love to go back and meet Paul Newman when he was in his prime.

Homecoming Week 2003

Mustang Parade

One of the highlights of homecoming week at Loretto High is the time and hard work put into preparing for the parade. Meetings are held for the separate classes to discuss ideas on themes and then build their floats. This year the freshmen came in first place with their Cream the Tigers float. Seniors stole second with their cowboy boots, Stomp the Tigers. The juniors fell to third with their slogan: Mow 'em Down Mustangs. Finally, the sophomores came in at number four, telling the Mustangs to Deliver a Victory.

You Said It!

Jed Pettus

Do you think the freshmen deserved to win this year's float contest?

Yes, lots of time and effort was put into their float.

Coach Weeks

What is your favorite thing about the Mustang Parade?

My favorite thing is watching the fun and happiness that all the participants exhibit.

Kristina Springer

Which float do you think was the best this year?

I think the seniors should have won.

Homecoming Court

The homecoming court consists of couples selected as representatives of each class. The attendants are voted upon as part of the yearly homecoming rituals. Every year the freshmen contribute one couple, the sophomores two, the juniors three, and the seniors five. These lucky couples have the privilege of being escorted in the parade and receiving special recognition before the football game on Friday night.

Above: Mandy Cross, Jana Cross, Ciel Fontenot, Hope Brown, Whitney Green, Anna Engles, Stacey Norwood, Channing Franklin, Laura Birdyshaw, and Leah Stone are all smiles after the ceremony.

You Said It!

Stacey Norwood

As a senior, what was the best part of Homecoming?

I loved riding in the old Model A during the Homecoming parade.

Kyle McDow

Where you nervous about having to escort Channing out on the football field?

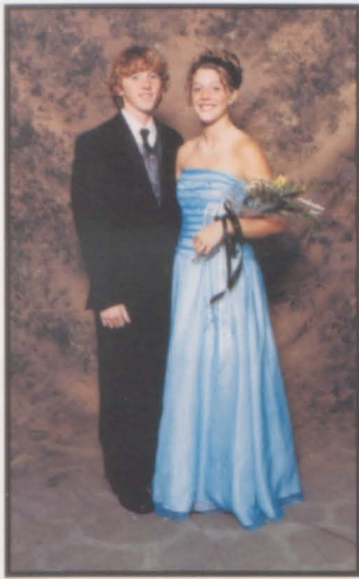

Yes, I almost soiled my pants.

Hope Brown

What made this Homecoming memorable to you?

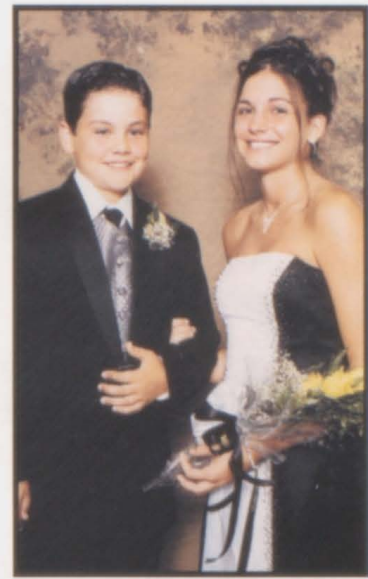

Before we walked outside on the field, the seniors began singing "Friends in Low Places" led by Kyle McCormack.

Homecoming Queen

One of the most anticipated moments of the year is when the crowd hears the new homecoming queen's name called. The stands are packed with excited spectators who wonder which girl will reign as queen. Though the seniors cast their votes for the top five, the football team gets the final decision on who will be queen. This year the honor went to Anna Engles with her escort Ben Ashworth.

sashed, and sceptored, is the 2003 Homecoming Queen.

You Said It!

Anna Engels

What did you think when you heard your name called as the 2003 Homecoming Queen?

Like, wow!

Ben Ashworth

What went through your mind when you realized you were the escort of the queen?

I couldn't believe I was the escort of a queen with a pink feather crutch.

All My Rowdy Friends

What would any of us do without the support of our friends? We all know that high school can be tough, and if not for those special people who help us make it through the tough times, all of us would be at a loss. Friends are there to laugh, get into trouble, or lend a helping hand. Through thick and thin, good times and not-so-good times, a friend is never far away.

You Said It!

Tasha Williams
Emmy Pigg

What's the best thing your friend has ever done for you?

I (Tasha) passed out after gym while I was in 8th grade and Emmy saved me.

Brett McDavid
Alex McKissack

What's the worst trouble you and your friend have ever gotten into?

We got kicked out of Freds for using their large African masks & pom-poms for a rain dance.

Alli Smith

What do you look for in a good friend?

Trustworthiness, good personality, and NOT SNOBBY.

1: Sarah Johnson and Ashley Davis are glad to have become such great friends.

2: Matthew Engelhardt skips class to hang out with Nick Quillen, and Zach Murphy.

3: Derek Kizer, Mark Lamm, and Ralph Passarella spend quality time together.

4: Brittany Bailey, Kaysha Erwin, Alli Smith, Sarah Johnson, and Brittany Laws look back on their friendship as seniors.

5: Jessica Dunkin and Holly Lee are inseparable.

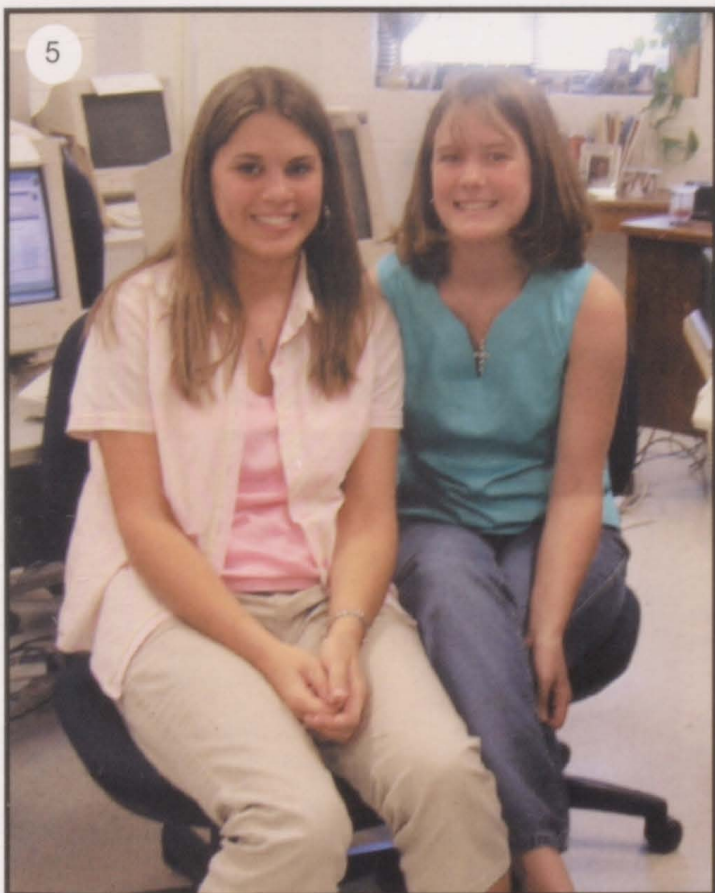

6: Claire Kennedy, Erin Cothren, Sarah Engelhardt, Clarissa Blackwood, Danielle Fowler, and Leah Reeves always have a good time together.

See How They Run

The 2004 LHS Drama production, See How They Run, was set during the late 1940's in rural England. The play was fast paced and witty. It told the hilarious story of a day at the Toop's residence. Anything that could go wrong did, but all was settled by the third act. The cast included:

- Ida.....Anna Engles
- Mrs. Skillon.....Rachel Gillespie
- Lionel Toop.....Beau Whitsett
- Penelope Toop.....Claire Kennedy
- Clive Winston.....Alex McKissack
- The Russian Prisoner.....Kyle Bosheers
- The Bishop.....Barry Rich
- Humphrey.....Chris Bowser
- The Police Sergeant.....Philippe Fontenot

You Said It!

Kyle Bosheers

Was it difficult to perfect your Russian accent?

Yes because I don't usually go around speaking in a Russian accent.

Philippe Fontenot

Who was your favorite character? Why?

Clive aka Alex because he made me laugh and I wanted to beat him.

Beau Whitsett

What would you have changed about the play?

I wish I had been wearing pink underwear.

Alex McKissack

What did you enjoy most about the play?

Stripping backstage! Just kidding, falling off the couch.

Far Right Top: Mr. Toop (Beau Whitsett) yells for help from the drunken Mrs. Skillon (Rachel Gillespie).

Far RightBottom: Clive (Alex McKissack) is held at gun-point as the Russian (Kyle Bosheers) makes his demands.

Right: Ida (Anna Engles) graces Mrs. Skillon (Rachel Gillespie) with her unwanted presence.

Left: Mrs. Toop (Claire Kennedy) has a difficult time distracting Humphrey (Chris Bowser) from all the commotion of the chase.

Right: Geisha Jennifer Johnson brings a part of Chinatown to LHS.

Left: Emmy Roberson and Lauren Flatt go all out for trick-or-treating.

Halloween 2003

Ghosts & Goblins

Since Halloween only comes once a year, folks at LHS take advantage of this holiday by being funny, strange, or as scary as possible. From witches and wizards to fairies and foreign cultures, many were decked out in their best costumes hoping to get the most treats or play the most tricks.

You Said It!

Rachel Gillespie

What's the worst trick you've ever received on Halloween?

*Someone rolled my yard and put open safety pins, forks, and cut up newspapers.
NOT NICE!*

Zack Wright

What do you enjoy most about Halloween?

Candy, candy and more candy!

Whose costume do you think was the best this year?

Ms. Nondas' was the best!

Right: Jessica Ballard does her impression of the Pillsbury Dough Boy.

Hack Attack

The sport of "hacking" has become quite popular this year.

Even though it was banned, the popularity of this pastime grew from one small group into several larger groups. Hacking also became a good source of visual entertainment for other students.

On any day, dedicated groups of "hackers" could be found in the courtyard or in the band hallway playing their sport.

You Said It!

Tara Comer

What makes hacky sac such a unique sport?

It brings all different types of people together. It's different than most sports, and it's a lot of fun!

Levi Wallner

Who's the best hacker here at LHS? Why?

Tyler Hickman because his record is 210 hits.

Tony Giambelluca

Why do you think hacking has become so popular this year?

Because it's basically the only game we can play during school, and almost anyone can play.

Tony Giambelluca shows off his hacking skills in the courtyard during break.

John Odem keeps his eye on the sac as Kendra Brazier, Mike O'Connell and John Prince look on.

Left: Blake Brown and Ashley Luna were all decked out for the winter formal.

Right: Tasha Williams and Chris Beckman enjoy a romantic night.

Winter semiformal 2004

Winter Wonderland

On Saturday, January 31st, the annual Winter Formal was held at Loretto High. The cafeteria took on a wintery appearance with lights, stars, and balloons adorning the room. Though the night was cold, couples and friends kept warm by dancing the night away to the music of DJ Derrick Glass.

You Said It!

Jessica Purser

Did you enjoy this year's winter formal?

Yes. I had fun hanging out with my friends. It was a very memorable night.

Kristen Degan

What do you think was the highlight of the 2004 winter formal?

I had the most fun while I was eating at Brass Lantern with my friends.

Bethany Nugent

What would have made the winter formal perfect?

If it had been longer.

Left: Clarissa Blackwood and Derek Marks are exhausted after hours of dancing.

Top: Everyone gets set to sling some pies.

Mr. N enjoys creaming senior Hope Brown during the pie ceremony in the gym.

That's the Spirit

Each year the Beta Club sponsors a fundraising week full of quarter-collecting, trash-talking teachers and class presidents. Students and faculty are always highly entertained by the "campaign" flyers and speeches during morning announcements. Each class gives quarters for links in order to build the longest chain. The teacher of the winning class gets a pie in the face. For the losing classes, the class president is pied by his/her teacher. The proceeds go to the Beta Club, who uses the funds for gifts to the school. This year the sophomores won, so Mrs. Stout received a pie in the face.

You Said It!

Mr. N

Who did you want to see pied the most?

Mrs. Stout because she ran her mouth and called me names.

Chris Beckman

How did you feel about getting pied?

I was looking forward to eating the pie so I skipped lunch that day.

Derrick Newton

What made this spirit chain contest fun?

It was great to get to pie Mrs. Stout and watch her suffer. I really did not want to get pied.

Right: Sophomores Lucas Gillespie and Miles Dooley keep seniors Scott Sanker, Nick Davis, and Bill Engels from making a play.

Class Tournaments 2004

Class Champs

Top: Junior Brandy Novem and Mrs. Taylor look on in awe as Mrs. Weaver attempts a shot.

Bottom: Junior Kari Stout attempts a free throw after being fouled by a faculty member.

There has always been and will continue to be that competitiveness between each class. Still, the rivalry is even more intense during the annual class tournaments. Each class pulls together a team of players that is willing and able to show their skills on the court. These brave souls put themselves in the spotlight for the sake of the championship and the right to call themselves "the best". This year the juniors dominated the student games with both teams making it to the final round. However, the overall champs were not students at all. Both faculty teams succeeded in defeating the junior teams.

You Said It!

Tiffany Hallmark

Who should have been the winners of the class tournaments?

The juniors. They were good.

Coach Simbeck

Who should be named as MVP of the tournaments?

Coach Pettus, no doubt. He outscored the juniors by himself.

Josh Allen

What was the best part about class tournaments?

Watching Coach Weeks run up and down the court.

Prom 2004

A Midsummer Night's Dream

The Shakespearian theme of "A Midsummer Night's Dream" transformed the 2004 Junior-Senior Prom into a magical, romantic, fantasy land. Though the rainy night prevented couples from dancing in the lighted courtyard, nothing could stop the excitement of everyone attending the dance.

You Said It!

Will Methvin

What was the most memorable thing about prom?

The Michael Jackson song "Thriller".

Vanessa Aldridge

What was the most embarrassing moment you had at prom?

My hands smelled like seafood because I couldn't wash my hands after eating at Red Lobster.

Nikki Brown

How long did it take you to find the perfect dress?

The first dress I found was the one.

Far Right: Mr. Daniel and Mrs. Niedergeses show Ashley Fleeman what real dancing is all about.

Center: Mrs. Stout teaches her daughter Kari Stout how to do the electric slide.

Right: Kyle McDow and a faceless Philippe Fontenot do a little dancing cheek to cheek.

AWARDS DAY 2004

And the Award Goes to

Awards day is a much anticipated event for the seniors because its arrival means that they are one step closer to graduation. This year Awards Day was held on May 11th in a hot gym. Students, faculty and participants sat attentively as select seniors were awarded honors and scholarships. It was a day that the senior class will never forget.

You Said It!

Jamison Holden

What did you think when your name was called out for the drafting award?

I was so surprised because I thought someone else was going to get it.

Dale Hobbs

Out of all the awards you received, which did you enjoy the most?

The math award because I have been striving for it all four years of high school and math is my passion.

Kaysha Erwin

How did it feel to win the Jarrod and Orry Carter Memorial Scholarship?

I felt very privileged to receive it because he was so close to everyone's hearts at LHS.

Far Right: Stacey Norwood accepts the F.R.E.D. Scholarship from Mr. Nick Passarella of Loretto Telephone Company.

Far Left: Mrs. Bosheers presents Tabitha Gatlin with the FCCLA award for her four years of dedication to the club.

Left: Randall and Janice Brown present Josey Sandy with the first annual Dillon Brown Memorial Scholarship.

Below: Claire Holt receives the William Curt Jansen Memorial Scholarship from Mr. Augustin.

Sports

Even though many people believe sports are about

winning, they are actually about teamwork and leadership.

.....
All athletes won't get to experience the thrill and

.....
exhilaration of winning a state championship, but they will

.....
experience what it means to work together as a team to

.....
acheive a common goal.

Sarah Brewer and other volleyball players cheer on Meredith Green before a match.

What did you say?

Do you have any advice for the team next year?

Ben Ashworth

The 2003 golf season was one to remember! The boys team finished 8-8 and the girls 2-7 during their regular seasons. The boys team missed qualifying for the region as a team by finishing one stroke out of third place at district. Jeremy Lumpkins was the leader of the deepest team ever fielded at LHS. Jeremy qualified for the region as an individual. At district for the girls team Rachel Stone and Ashley Bosheers played well and qualified as individuals. Next season should prove to be a banner year for the two teams.

MUSTANGS

The 2003-2004 volleyball season was a triumphant one. The Lady Mustangs went 33-12 in the regular season and were district runner up. They went on to the district tournament where they placed second in the field. Whitney Green, Meredith Green, Jana Cross, and Paige Hannah each took home all-district honors. After the Mustangs finished district play, they moved on to regional play where they also were runner up. In that tournament, Whitney Green and Meredith Green each made the all region team. In the finale to their great season, the Mustangs went on to sub state where they lost a hard fought game.

In their first season as a team, the Lady Mustangs soccer team surprised many by their play. Even though most of the players on the team had no previous experience, they learned a lot and played hard during their inaugural season. Although they started out slowly, the team finished the season well and are on their way to a breakthrough season in 2004.

LORETTO

Softball is not a soft sport. Instead, it is one of the dirtiest and most competitive sports there is. This season, the Lady Mustangs were led by seniors Whitney Green and Brittany Purser. During the regular season they went 21-12, and in the district tournament they placed second. However, they were upset in the first round of regional play on a late inning home run. In year-end honors, Coaches Green, Jones, Snider, and Weeks were honored as Coaches of the Year.

Lady Mustangs

M U S T A N G S

The 2003-2004 Lady Mustang basketball season was one of the best in the last ten years. During the regular season, they went 20-4. Entering the district tournament, the Lady Mustangs won a series of close games to win the tournament and district bragging rights. They then went on to Sub-State where they swept their games to win that tournament. After their thrilling Sub-State victory, they went on to the State Tournament where their season ended when they lost a very close game to Seymour.

Underclassmen

From the moment they enter the doors at Loretto High School,
.....
students look forward to their senior year, but before they can
.....
earn the coveted title of senior, they must take the journey as
.....
underclassmen. As the scared freshmen they learn the ins
.....
and outs and dos and don'ts of LHS. Then, they sit back and relax through their uneventful sophomore year. Finally, as
.....
.....
juniors, they struggle through all of those tough classes and
.....
at last reach their final destination as seniors at LHS.

Seniors

The senior year is a time of both happiness and
.....
sadness. Many members of the class of 2004 have
.....
known each other since the first day of
.....
kindergarten. On the final day of their senior year,
.....
graduates felt the excitement of the new challenges
.....
ahead but the sadness of lost youth and friends

Ronnie Baker, Brittany Bailey, and Seth Augustin wait patiently for the graduation ceremony to begin.

Presenting the Class of 2004

Graduation is always a time of mixed emotions, and May 20th was no different. As the seniors walked on the field, they were overjoyed, but also sad because this would be the last time the class of 2004 would be joining as a group. Parents were glad their children had made it this far but perhaps wished that their children could go back to that first day of kindergarten. The students, however, were ready to take that first exciting step into the future.

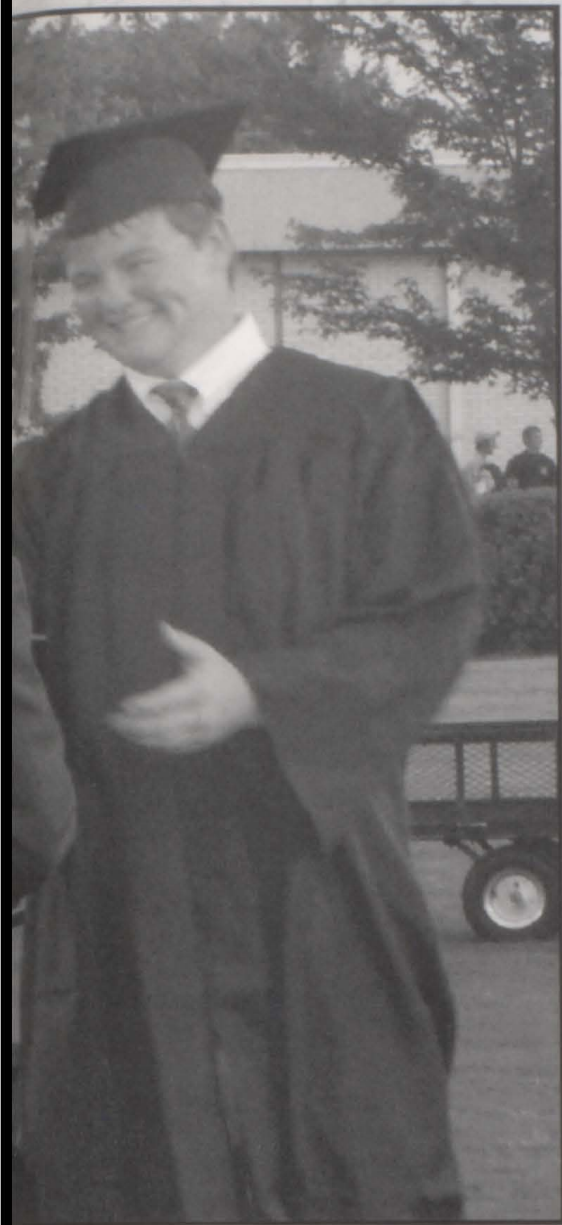

Mr. Stough directs Mary Lumpkins, Chasity Richardson, Rachel Gillespie, Katie Barnett, Anna Engels, and Barry Rich as they sing You Raise Me Up during the graduation ceremony.

Barry Rich delivers the valedictory at the end of the graduation ceremony.

Following tradition, graduates their hats in the air at the end gather in the end zone and toss of the ceremony.

Beth Beecham, Cory Beckman, David Davenport, Katie Barnett, and Chris Balentine stand as their classmates enter the field.

Jed Pettus, Michael Tays, Alli Smith, Lydia Urban, and Kade Smith anxiously await the ceremony's close.

Right: Nick Crabb keeps his eyes on the ball, and Jimmy Vanderford can't believe that the Bouncin' Betsy didn't land on his color.

Below: Meredith Green, Stacey Norwood, and Racheal Stone wait to place their bets at the blackjack table.

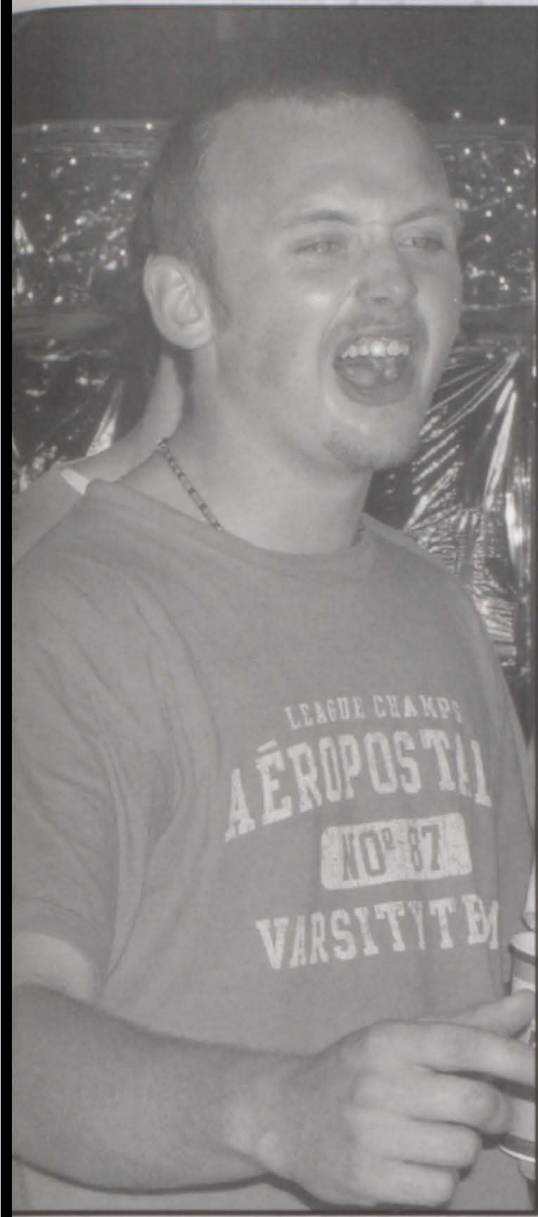

Nick Fox and Brandon Cromwell concentrate on the action at the roulette table.

Josey Sandy and David Newton lay down their bets as Misty Heathcoat looks on.

Hollywood Nights

At the beginning of the year, the seniors and their parents began planning the after graduation drug free party. They collected donations, had car washes, and sold doughnuts and pizzas. After much hard work, it all came together and the graduates spent one last night together as the class of 2004 socializing and playing casino games.

Blake Brown and Jessica Dryden decide which colors will pay off at the Bouncin' Betsy table.

Sarah Johnson, Anita Hollman, and Katie Steele trade their cash for chips.

Clubs and Organizations

Loretto High School has many clubs and organizations

that students can be involved in. These clubs and

.....
organizations offer students a chance to learn about

.....
community service, team work, and unity. Students also

.....
get the chance to take field trips and do fun activities that

.....
provide a break from the classroom.

Marching Mustangs

This year the Loretto Marching Mustangs worked very hard. The band gave outstanding performances at all of the home football games. They fired up the crowds at the pep rallies and participated in the homecoming parade. With the patience and guidance of Mr. Stough, the new band director, this year was full of many spectacular performances by the Marching Mustangs.

YEARBOOK

Most students think that yearbook is an easy way to earn an "A", but in reality that's not the case. Yearbook requires a lot of creativity and work. There are layouts to create, pictures to take, and ads to sell, and it all has to be finished by the deadline and meet Mrs. Weaver's approval.

Diamond Girls: Melissa Daniels, Erin Dixon and Jessica West

Diamond Girls

This group of hardworking girls makes sure each home game goes smoothly. They are responsible for running the concession stand, taking up money, and working the scoreboard. The Diamond Girls work may not seem like much, but thanks to a few dedicated and responsible girls, each game goes great.

FCA

The purpose of this group is to show respect, honor, and service to God. The FCA works hard to bring more of the Christian faith to Loretto High School. Each year they help young, physically or mentally challenged children at Ride Day and hold an annual food drive.

Service Learning

Service Learning students assist teachers at South Lawrence, Sacred Heart and Loretto High School. After-school projects include activities like volunteer work at the Safe and Smart Center in Lawrenceburg. All students also complete an individual service project and have a job shadowing experience.

Youth Leadership

This organization is a branch of the Lawrence County Chamber of Commerce Leadership Lawrence County for adults. This organization consists of three sophomores and three juniors selected by the faculty. These students take field trips, learn about state and local government, and become more aware of how to be a good leader.

F & M Advisory Board

The First Farmers and Merchants Advisory Board is an organization in which members learn about the banking world. The three members of the organization are ambassadors for the bank. The members have many exciting experiences such as visiting the State capital and the Treasury Department in Nashville, Tennessee.
